VETERINARY ELITE MUSCLE SUPPLEMENT

Veterinary Elite Muscle Supplement is a Complementary Feed for horses containing a high concentration of Amino Acids, as well as the important antioxidant Vitamin E.

Amino acids are essential for the formation of muscles through protein synthesis, and supplementary feeding is particularly important to maintain and improve muscle mass during periods of competition or intensive exercise, rehabilitation following injury, for underdeveloped horses and periods of pre-training or sales preparation. Vitamin E is a fat-soluble antioxidant which protects muscle cells from the damaging effect of free radicals.
